Second Dispensation – “Conscience”

Genesis Ch. 4 – 6:11

Genesis 4:

1) In what ways did life change for Adam and Eve (and their children that followed) because they were barred from the Garden and the Tree of Life?

2) In what ways is the course of Cain’s life an example both of humanity itself and of God’s grace?

3) What does it mean to have a seared conscience? What does the Bible say about a clean conscience?

Genesis 5:

4) This chapter provides a detailed lineage from Adam through to Noah’s sons, which is graphed on the attached page. Please take a moment to notice how their lives overlapped.

5) Read about Enoch here in Gen. 5:21-24, in Hebrews 11:5, and in Jude V. 14-15. What are your thoughts about Enoch’s life?

Genesis 6:1-11:

6) What can we learn from this passage and from other references to the “days of Noah” about the evil that was taking place before the Flood?
